

Clarence Kwan, National Managing Partner, Chinese Services Group
Deloitte LLP

Mr. Kwan has 30 years of advisory and management experience in the U.S., China and Eastern Europe. From 1995 to 2002, Mr. Kwan was based in Beijing as the Deputy CEO of our China practice. Prior to Beijing, he spent three years in Prague, Czech Republic, advising extensively on the restructuring of state-owned enterprises. He has also worked in Houston, New York and Taipei since joining the firm in 1978. With his multi-functional and multi-cultural background, he is a trusted business advisor to our clients, especially in the areas of expanding and competing on a cross-border basis.

Mr. Kwan, a frequent speaker on China-related topics and a Certified Public Accountant in the U.S., advises multinational companies, large national enterprises and financial investors in the following areas:

- Cross-border investments and international alliances
- Mergers & acquisitions
- Corporate governance
- State-owned enterprises restructuring and privatization

EDUCATION AND HONORS

University of Texas at Austin, Master of Professional Accounting 1978
University of Texas at Austin, Bachelor of Arts in Psychology 1975

Named one of the 50 Outstanding Asian Americans in Business for 2005 by the Asian American Business Development Center

Chairman – China Committee, US Council for International Business
Chairman – China Task Force, Business & Industry Advisory Committee to the OECD
Board of Directors – Committee of 100
Trustee – Museum of Chinese in America (MOCA)